

West Virginia Board of Professional Surveyors
Announces a Continuing Education Workshop by:
Knud E. Hermansen, Ph.D., P.L.S., P.E., Esq.

Friday, May 7, 2010
Charleston Civic Center
Charleston, West Virginia

This professional ethics and minimum technical standards workshop meets the requirement of 23 CSR-2-3.2 which requires that all licensees obtain a minimum of 2 PDH'S in each discipline in Board approved courses or activities every 4 years.

Registration: 7:30 a.m. - 8:00 a.m.
(Beverages and snacks will be available throughout the day)

8 a.m. to 12 noon - Minimum Technical Standards

Review the laws and regulations governing the practice of land surveying in West Virginia to include an in-depth discussion of the minimum standards for boundary surveys.

Noon to 1 p.m. – Lunch on your own

1 p.m. to 5 p.m. – Professional Ethics for Surveyors

This session will define the attributes of a professional surveyor and discuss the surveyor's obligations to his client, the public, and the profession; and will propose a professional code of conduct. It will also review the Board's legislative rules and discuss ethical considerations in the boundary surveying process.

Registration Deadline: April 30, 2010

Cost of seminar: $125.00

Note: Attendees must sign in at the registration desk upon arrival for the morning session and again following lunch. Certificates for 8 PDHs will be presented at 5 p.m. to those who have signed in and attended both sessions.
